

People for Prairies 2023 Speaker

Parent

JAIME GONZÁLEZ, M.ED.

*Healthy Communities Director
The Nature Conservancy in Texas*

Jaime González is a conservationist, environmental educator, communicator, and network weaver who works with communities to co-create healthier, more climate ready, more equitable, and more wildlife-rich places using One Health framings and actions. He also serves as the vice chair of the North American Association for Environmental Education

(NAAEE), which sets national standards for environmental education excellence.

Mr. González earned a M.Ed. in Curriculum & Instruction-Science Education and a B.S. in Biology from the University of Houston. He has also earned professional certificates in civic ecology/environmental education, environmental communications, and climate change and health from Cornell, Duke, and Yale Universities, respectively. Jaime has won numerous awards for his work, including the Distinguished Alumni Award from the University of Houston's College of Natural Sciences and Mathematics, the Elizabeth Hull Abernathy Award from the Garden Club of America (for outstanding contributions to youth education), and was recently named a Houston Visionary by the Center for Houston's Future.

From Jaime González

